DESTROYER ENGAGES SUBMARINE

Coast Cities Prepare For All
Emergencies Even to Possible
Airplane Raids

New York, June 4. —The toll of dead and missing from the raid of German submarines against shipping off the American coast apparently stood tonight at 58. All from the steamship Carolina of the New York and Porto Rico line. Sixteen of this number are known to have perished when one of the ship's boats capsized in a storm Sunday night after the vessel had been sunk. The fate of the others is not known, but it is hoped they have been picked up by a passing ship and will yet reach shore safely. Officials of the company have placed the number of passengers aboard the ship when she was attacked 125 miles off Sandy Hook at 220, and the crew at 130, making 350 in all.

194 Are Nearing Port.
Capt. Barbour reported to the company today that he was on board the schooner Eva B. Douglass with 100 passengers and 94 of the crew. The schooner is being towed to this port by a tug which was sent to her aid and is expected to arrive early tomorrow morning.

A boat containing 28 survivors, 21 passengers, and seven of the crew arrived at Atlantic City this afternoon. Another lifeboat, with 19 passengers and nine members of the crew arrived at Lewis, Del., with the report that 15 of the crew who had started from the ship had lost their lives in the storm Sunday night.

If the company's figures as to the number aboard the ill-starred liner are correct, this leaves 12 unaccounted for. That number might have been crowded into one lifeboat. The only possible clue to their fate was found in the fact that an empty boat, marked with the name of the Carolina, was picked up at sea by a British steamship which arrived here today. It had every evidence of having been riddled by gun fire. It may have carried the passengers and sailors who still are missing.

Another Ship Is Sunk.

There was no official confirmation of a report that several bodies had been washed ashore at Beach Haven, N. J.

Another ship was added to the list of victims of the U-boats when the American schooner, Edward R. Baird, Jr., was found in a sinking condition off the Maryland coast, after having been bombed.

The navy department reported that a destroyer had gone into action against a submarine which was attacking a French steamer not far from where the Baird was found.

While all the resources of the navy were engaged in a determined search for the sea raiders, coast cities made preparations for any emergency. All display lights were ordered extinguished in New York city and in cities and towns along the Long Island and New Jersey coasts.

Lending strength to the theory that the government may have some definite ground for a fear of air raids, Police Commissioner Enright tonight announced the signals which will tell of the coming of enemy aircraft.

At every aviation station along the coast flocks of planes took the air today. In some cases they went out to sea in battle formation.

The following list of survivors of the Carolina landed here:

Lieutenant J. J. McLaren, Brookline, N. Y.; Caroline B. Higgins, Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. Rachael B. Hamilton and Charlotte Hamilton, wife and daughter of the chief justice of the supreme court of San Juan, P. R.

Anita E. Cheney, San Juan, P. R.; Charlotte E. Perkins, Boston, Mass.; William Dickinson, Arlington, Mass.; Mrs. C. H. Westbrook, New York

Green American Troops Crush Attack on Line Nearest Paris

(By the Associated Press.)

With the American Army in Picardy, June 4.—American troops co-operating with the French west of Chateau Thierry north of the Marne, the nearest and most critical point to Paris reached by the enemy, have brilliantly checked the onrushing Germans, beating off repeated attacks and inflicting severe losses, thus adding to the glory of American history.

The troops began to arrive on the battle front on Saturday and participated in the fighting almost immediately. They not only repulsed the Germans at every point at which they were engaged, but took prisoners without having any prisoners in turn taken by the Germans.

The Americans entered the battle enthusiastically, eager to fight, after a long march. On their way to the battle line they were cheered by the crowds in the villages through which they passed. Their victorious stand with their gallant French allies soon after entering the line electrified all France.

The work of the American machine gunners are particularly noteworthy. There was at least one instance where an entire attacking party was wiped out.

Owing to the fierceness of the battle it has been difficult to verify details, but there were instances of the stiffest of hand to hand fighting. In this the Americans acquitted themselves in a manner which won the greatest praise from their French comrades.

The most determined attack against the Americans occurred last night. Preceded by a heavy bombardment, the Germans came in waves. They penetrated the American trenches, but were quickly ejected, leaving many dead.

Two earlier attacks Monday and three Sunday were quickly repulsed.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHER SHIP TORPEDOED, SALT STRIKE NOW THREATENS TELLS OF SEEKING AID

Only Intervention By Federal Government It Is Believed
Will Avert It

With Gasoline For Ten Miles and Seventy-Five to Go He Starts
For Nearest Shore

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Only intervention by the federal government can prevent a general strike by operators employed by the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, S. J. Koenekamp, president of the Telegraphers' union, said tonight before leaving for Chicago. Upon his arrival there he planned to mail out the call for a walkout as a result of the refusal of the Western Union company to submit to the jurisdiction of the National War Labor board, which sought to compose differences between the companies and the men.

After two days spent here in discussing the situation with administrative officials, members of congress and labor leaders, Mr. Koenekamp said he doubted that, even should the government decide to intervene, action could be taken in time to prevent the men from going out. He declined to estimate the number that might be involved.

Secretary Wilson, who discussed the situation with the union president, is understood to have laid the matter before the cabinet at its meeting today, but there was no indication that further steps were planned to prevent a strike.

Mr. Koenekamp said he had been assured by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor of his interest and sympathy and of such assistance as the federation could lend an affiliated union. Mr. Gompers made no statement.

NEW ALIEN PROPERTY RULE.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Drastic extension of the trading with the enemy act to facilitate handling of the million of dollars worth of enemy property taken over by the government was asked of congress today by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian.

Under a bill, which Mr. Palmer urged the house Interstate Commerce committee to expedite the title to any property of an enemy or ally of an enemy seized thereby, would be vested in the alien property custodian. This would apply to every right to the property including liens or encumbrances of any kind.

Mr. Palmer told the committee such a provision would solve a troublesome problem with which the government's lawyers have been wrestling.

DASHED TO DEATH IN PLANE.

San Antonio, Texas, June 4.—Second Lieutenant Joseph John O'Malley, 26, of Albany, Mo., was instantly killed today when his airplane went into a tail spin. A companion, whose name was not disclosed by the authorities, escaped unhurt.

The addresses of the following have not been learned:

P. Anderson, R. Fernandez, C. Haezich, C. Blank, J. E. Borren, D. Rodriguez, Juan Garcia, P. Goulas, F. Quirina, M. Rodriguez, L. Levy, S. E. Lewis, J. Barber, Gertrude L.

New York, June 4. —Capt. Thomson of the schooner, Isabel B. Wiley, landed here today by an American coastwise freighter with 15 more survivors of three vessels sunk off the New Jersey coast by German submarines, told a thrilling tale of a dash he made toward shore after he had taken to his motor boat and received about 11 Americans held prisoner on the undersea craft.

When the submarine left him there were pitching about in the sea near him three boats of the steamer Winnecoonne, which had just been sunk. In these boats were survivors from the Winnecoonne and Capt. Gilmore and the crew of the Edna, which also had been sunk. Capt. Thomson, who had in his motor boat not only his own crew but some of the crew of the schooner Hauppauge and the mate of the schooner Hattie Dunn, who had been transferred from the submarine, wished to take three lifeboats in tow.

Holding conference on the high seas, the occupants of the four small craft decided that with the three lifeboats in tow, Capt. Thomson with his meagre supply of gasoline could not proceed more than ten miles. As there was 75 miles away, it was decided that he should make a dash for help. While heading for the nearest land, Capt. Thomson was picked up by a coast liner, which later transferred him and his men to another steamship. Failing to find the three boats of the Winnecoonne, which had meanwhile been picked up and landed here last night, the rescue ship headed for this port, arriving here today.

It was about 5 o'clock Sunday morning, when Captain Thomson, bound from Princess Bay to Newport News and Montevideo, first sighted the submarine astern. He took it for an American submarine chaser, but as it approached he made out two strange flags, which he described as "black and white diamonds," showing that it was an enemy craft.

When the submarine fired a six inch shell toward the Wiley, clearing the water 100 yards from the ship, Captain Thomson called all hands on deck and lowered his motor boat. At that moment the Winnecoonne hove in sight and the submarine fired a shell across her bows, forcing the crew to take to the boats. After the Winnecoonne and Wiley had both been sent to the bottom, the submarine came alongside Thomson's motor boat. After transferring seven men from the motor boat and dividing 12 more prisoners among three small boats from the Winnecoonne, the submarine hastened away.

CAN CHANGE "TEU" ON NAME.

Rochester, June 4. — Supreme Court Justice Benton today granted the application of the Deutsche Evangelische Lutherische Friedenskirche to change its name to the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Peace. The reason for the change was said to be the "Teutonic tone" of the old name.

GERMAN THRUST WEAKENS.

Paris, France, June 4. —A very appreciable slackening of the German effort is noticed in the announcement of the French war office tonight. The French positions at certain points have been improved and a German attack which at first made some progress was later repulsed.

Police Commissioner Takes Precautions
After Conference With Military Authorities

New York, June 4. — The huge German submarines lurking off the coast, the possibility that they may carry hydroplanes from which bombs can be dropped on New York was given grim meaning by Police Commissioner Enright tonight, when he made formal announcement of the signals which will be sounded in case of enemy air raids.

"The police department desires to notify all residents of this city through the press," said the statement, "that in the event of a raid on this city by enemy airplanes, the following signals will be given:

"Siren horns or whistles will be sounded continuously for ten minutes. When this signal is given every one should immediately open the windows of their homes or offices and go at once to the cellar of the premises."

"After the danger has passed a signal will be given by short blasts of siren horns or whistles at intervals of one minute each for a period of 20 minutes."

This reminder that the war has been carried to the gates of the city followed close upon the heels of an order under which all display lights must be extinguished until further notice.

Confers With Military Authorities.

Commissioner Enright's action followed promptly a conference held at Governor's Island between Allen A. Ryan, special deputy police commissioner in charge of the division of national defense, and the military authorities. According to Commissioner Enright the military authorities "believed it a wise plan to dim the lights, especially excess lights."

Deputy Ryan asserting that there is a possibility that U-boats off our shores might carry airplanes which could fly over the city and drop bombs, said he learned that American planes would be sent up over the city to determine the effect of the light dimming edict.

Persons who fail to observe the order which extends to Coney Island and all other sea-side resorts within the city limits, will be reported by the police to the department of justice, he said. "Not only must display lights be dimmed but it effects office buildings and dwelling houses, where lights are used and shades should be drawn wherever possible. For several months Commissioner Enright has been preparing for a possible air raid on this city, asserting that New York should not be taken by surprise as was London and Paris during the first stage of the war.

In every precinct has been organized a surgical relief unit. The physicians and nurses enrolled for home defense work have been drilled thoroughly as to how they should respond to air raid signals.

C. W. FAIRBANKS DIES AT INDIANAPOLIS HOME

Former Vice-President and Indiana Senator Succumbs to Chronic Ailment

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4.—Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States and former United States senator from Indiana, died at his home here at 8:55 o'clock tonight. Death was due to interstitial nephritis, which has been a chronic ailment with him but not regarded as particularly serious until recently. All members of the former Vice President's family, except Major Richard Fairbanks, who is in France, were at his bedside.

Mr. Fairbanks became unconscious several days ago and did not regain consciousness up to the time of his death.

Mr. Fairbanks was 55 years old and had been nominated twice on the Republican ticket for vice president of the United States. After his first nomination he was elected, but was defeated in his second race in 1916.

The former Vice President's health had been poor for several years. Last winter he went to California in an effort to recuperate. In May, however, he had an acute attack of illness and was unconscious for several days. While at times since then he had improved some, various relapses always have left him weaker. Last Thursday he became much worse and Saturday had a stroke of apoplexy.

DESTROYER SAVES SHIP FROM U-BOAT'S ATTACK

Harrowing Tale of Sea Told
By Survivors of Carolina

Only One Boat Has Reached Land Bearing Nineteen Survivors—Launch Capsized Many Times in Heavy Storm—Girl Saved

Lewis, Del., June 4.—Nineteen survivors, passengers and crew of the submarine steamship "Carolina" were landed here today and brought a harrowing tale of the sea, the loss of 16 of their number and a remarkable rescue of a girl while they drifted helplessly on the ocean during a severe thunder storm Sunday night.

Ten boats left the Carolina before she was sunk by the German submarine U-37, all passed through the same storm and the survivors said they had felt sure all were lost.

The nineteen persons landed here were brought in by a British vessel that picked them up more than 25 miles off the Delaware capes. They were taken in charge by the naval authorities and cared for at the station near Cape Henlopen. In the meantime no one was permitted to see them but they made full statements to naval officers. None of them had any knowledge that the submarine had shelled the life boats.

The story of the survivors did not become public until they were taken to the railroad station late this afternoon and taken to New York. One of their number, however, was detained. He was a German member of the crew and will be held pending an investigation.

Carolina Was Warned.

According to the survivors the Carolina was warned late Sunday afternoon by wireless to look out for the submarines. The steamer was advised that a three masted schooner had just been sunk and was cautioned not to show lights. At 6 o'clock Sunday evening a submarine appeared on the surface close to the Carolina. She was about 350 feet long, survivors said, and later was identified as the U-37.

The submarine signalled something which our captain could not make out, said one of the survivors and then the U-boat raised the German flag. We were ordered to heave to and the captain fearing that the submarine would shell the steamer, if we did not obey the order, signalled the engineer to reverse the engines and stop.

"A German officer with an armed guard came along side and gave orders to lower all boats and leave the ship in 20 minutes."

"Of course it would be useless to say that none of us were frightened, for where there are more than 300 persons on a ship about to be sunk there must be some timid ones. Good order was maintained, however. The sea was smooth and there appeared to be few elements of danger. No body thought of a storm and the German officers appeared to show consideration to the passengers as they hurried to leave the steamer."

Got Every Man Off.

"Ten boats were lowered and everybody got in. There was little or no confusion. All the time the submarine lay as close as possible to the members of the crew standing on deck watching us or buying themselves about the boat. After all the lifeboats had swung away from the Carolina, the German officers aboard the abandoned steamer hailed one of the lifeboats and ordered her to return. This frightened many in the other lifeboats, but after a time we found out the reason for the German's action. In going through the steamer he found a fireman who had been left behind and he had ordered the lifeboat to return for him."

"When this last boat cleared the ship again the Germans left the Carolina and in a few minutes the submarine shelled her seven times. Then she burst into flames. Whether the Germans set her afire or whether the shelling had caused the fire to break out I do not know."

"It was a beautiful summer evening as we drifted, no one knew where. The sun began to set as the Carolina slowly went down. Then it became dark and a feeling of fear overcame many of us. The sea was still smooth. We strained our eyes to see a light but there was none. All the boats kept as closely together as possible, every one taking a turn at the oars."

"After we had drifted for I do not know how long, there were faint flashes of light on the horizon and later when the puff of wind began to strengthen we instinctively knew there was trouble ahead."

Heavy Storm Blows Up.

"The storm came quicker than we expected. The wind blew like a gale and knocked up a nasty sea. The boats pitched and soon became separated, and we, who were in a motor launch, seemed to be alone in the storm. Rougher and rougher became the water and the boat rolled and pitched and rolled. Finally she capsized and all of the 35 in her were thrown into the sea. She was righted and capsized again while we clung to her. This occurred several times. The storm passed and the sea began to calm. It was pitch dark."

"Finally we kept the launch righted, but she was full of water. We clung to her and bailed out the water with our hands. Some could not stand the strain and became exhausted let go their hold and sank. It was terrible. We bailed out enough water to let one of us in. Then we bailed furiously and enough water was scooped out to permit a second to get into the launch. We kept on bailing until the launch was able to bear the weight of a third and a fourth. We kept this up all night until finally all those who still clung to the sides of the motor boat were still able to get in. When the last was helped over the side, found that there were but nineteen of us. Sixteen had gone."

Girl Found Clinging to Bodies.

"With the coming of daylight the hopes of the survivors rose with the sun. The sea had calmed, but daylight revealed nothing but the broad expanse of the Atlantic. All hands came to the conclusion that none of the other boats had safely come through the storm and that all in them must have perished."

PATROL BOATS RUSH TO SCENE

Stories of Size of Enemy Craft
Cruising Ability and Armament
Are Widely Divergent

Washington, D. C., June 4. — Enemy submarines still were operating off the American coast today. A French tank steamer, the Radioline, the first trans-Atlantic craft to be attacked by the raiders, was saved from destruction at 9:30 o'clock this morning by an U. S. destroyer 65 miles off the Maryland coast.

The same destroyer found the coasting schooner Edward Baird Jr., sinking after having been sunk by the raiders. Announcement by the navy department of these facts tonight disclosed that the raid in American waters had not ended in yesterday's toll of destruction, upsetting the theory that the raiders, probably were speeding homeward.

Patrol Vessels Rush to Spot.

Coast patrol vessels now are closing in from all direction on the scene of the raiders' last exploit, scouring the sea for further trace of enemy U-boats as they come.

Secretary Daniels directed tonight that the brief report from the destroyer be made public. The destroyer herself, with two survivors from the Baird, a 279 ton craft sailing from Wilmington, Del., was still hunting for the enemy.

The announcement which naval officers said contained all the department knew of today's activities of the raiders follows:

"The navy department has received a dispatch from a United States destroyer that at 9:30 o'clock this morning she interrupted an attack by an enemy submarine on the French steamer Radioline, about 65 miles off the Maryland coast. The destroyer also took on board 10 men from the Edward Baird, which was bombed and sinking."

A later report was received stating that the Radioline had arrived at an Atlantic port.

Two U-Boats: U-37 and U-151.

Reports from survivors, who were aboard the vessel also established the fact that during the day that at least two submarines have been at work in American waters. They are the U-37 and the U-151, and a report to the navy department shows that one of them at least had stores to last her at least three months. If the navy department has reached a conclusion as to the size and sea-keeping qualities of the raiders they have not disclosed the facts. Statements of the seamen held on the raiders and later cast adrift in their boats conflict as to the size and armament of the new craft. Previous reports have indicated that the cruiser U-boats carry four heavy guns, while three guns is the largest number noted by the prisoners. The fact that some were aboard one vessel and some on the other may account for the differences otherwise noted. One report fixes the number of the crew of one boat at 74 men. That is almost double the number usually aboard an 899 tonner.

REPORT ARTILLERY DELIS.

Berlin, Germany, via London, England, June 4.—There have been artillery duels of varying intensity," says the German official communication issued today.

The enemy showed lively reconnoitering activity and made strong advances at several points of the front. South-west of Neirris (midway between Ypres and Bethune) he established himself in small trench sectors."

as to responsibility but that so far it had revealed nothing.

"Certain people," he declared, "expect me to take active measures against chiefs who have deserved well of their country. These people are mistaken; it would be a cowardice I shall never commit."

The premier said it was impossible at this time to give explanation, regarding the military situation. He said an investigation was being made

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Markets.

New York, June 4.—Evidently the exploits of enemy submarines along the Atlantic seaboard did not enter seriously into Wall Street's calculations today. Far more interest was manifested in war bulletins telling of the assistance rendered by American troops in checking the German drive at the Marne.

All divisions of the stock market opened at material gains, these being considerably enhanced during the active forenoon. Shippings, including shares of coastwise companies, participated in the advance, which ranged from 2 to 5 points among leaders. Reactions occurred on the reduced dealings of the mid-session, partly as a result of the French official report. Reactions were moderate, however, and affected only a few speculative favorites, specialties attaining to higher levels than before. United States Steel's early rise of 2½ points, at which it crossed par by a comfortable margin on heavy purchases, was a material factor in the strength of affiliated issues. Baldwin Locomotive was foremost among equipments at an extreme advance of four points, and other strong issues, including Reading, Union Pacific and New York Central Texas company and Mexican and California petroleum, Industrial Alcohol, distillers, leather, motors and tobacco, the latter group making gross gains of four to five points.

Except the tax-exempt 5½s all the Liberty issues made further concessions to new low records. The first 4s and second 4s fell to 22 and 4½ to 25.52. The general bond list was irregular.

The United States supreme court has declared the Federal Child Labor law to be unconstitutional, on the ground that it is an invasion of the local powers of the states. There was one justice, Holmes of Massachusetts, who dissented on the ground that public policies regarding the physical welfare of citizens are shaped with a view to the benefit of the nation as a whole. Child labor as it is practiced in the south is detrimental to that welfare, and so, in the opinion of Justice Holmes, is a subject on which congress may properly legislate. There are a great many people in the country who, no matter how the court stands, will range themselves alongside the dissenting justice.

There was probably disappointment on the part of General Wood when he was ordered back to Fort Funston to train recruits instead of having granted the dearest wish of his heart, which is to be given a command in France. There was certainly disappointment on the part of his many friends, some of whom have not hesitated in positive terms to express their opinion. All these, however, might well take a lesson from the speech of the General himself. No more dignified, manly and patriotic utterance ever came from the lips of an American soldier than that of General Wood. "The only thing for us to do—all of us—is to do the best we can to win this war" was his closing sentence. And what the General proposes to do in whatever position placed is what every loyal citizen should do, in whatever position placed.

The mayor of New York has discontinued his libel suits against the New York World, in which he demanded over a half million of dollars in damages, alleging that the pressure of business is too great to allow him at this time to bring the cases to trial. The pressure of business has not been too great for him to take long vacations at Atlantic City and with Hearst at Palm Beach, but one excuse is as good as another when one wishes to discontinue a libel suit against a newspaper.

The Germans in France have been held almost to a standstill on all sectors of the battle front, and on several they have been driven back. Whether they can renew their offensive there is a question; at any rate it is certain that the loss which they have sustained has been terrific and only the necessity of heartening the populace at home could impel to slaughter of their own men so indiscriminate.

Why the submarines came to America is certain to be the theme of much discussion from this time forth. One opinion is that it is to prevent the sailing of more American transports and supply ships. Another is that its purpose is merely terrorism, which elsewhere, particularly in Russia, has been found so effective. Another that it is hoped thereby to draw back to American waters a part of the great armada which is ready to take part with England and France in the great naval battle believed to be impending. Another that the drive is mostly for its moral effect in Germany, where the failure of the von Tirpitz predictions about bringing the Allies to their knees has been disheartening. Any or all these things may have been impelling causes, but to the United States the important thing is that they are here, and that it is for us to deal with them promptly and without disarrangement of the general plans of campaign.

THE INFANTILE CLINIC.

Twenty-Nine Sufferers from Epidemic Present—Several Discharged Cured.

There were 29 sufferers from the infantile paralysis epidemic, which in the summer of 1915 visited Oneonta and vicinity, present at the clinic held by the State Health department yesterday at the Nurses' home of the Fox Memorial hospital. This was two more than at the preceding clinic, and the records of the series of such clinics held in this city show a substantial gain in nearly every case. Yesterday several of the children present were discharged cured.

The clinic was conducted by Dr. Hubbard, assisted by special nurses and assistants from the state staff. The party left last evening for Binghamton, where a clinic will be held today. On June 15 a similar clinic will be held at the town hall in Norwich, and later in the season there will be another in Oneonta.

Miss Watkeys Wins Honors in Art.
Miss Margaret Watkeys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Watkeys of this city, has received notice that she has been awarded the sophomore prize for her work in the art department of Syracuse university. The prize is a substantial one of $100. Last year Miss Watkeys won the freshman prize of $50 in the same department. Her many Oneonta friends will extend hearty congratulations on her well-deserved honors.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Americans' Part.

The exploit of the American troops at Cantigny is not highly important in relation to the much greater events that the taking place further south on the line, but it is probably the most important blow that the American troops have yet struck independently in France, and it is an earnest of the sort of work that they are going to do in the great campaign. The French official statement pays full credit to the brilliancy of this little movement at Cantigny, which "let off" a salient of the German line after an attack on a strongly fortified position, and which resulted in the capture of some 200 prisoners and much war material. If the Americans continue to hold this point, the stroke will be a complete answer to the "Hessels" which the Germans say they taught our men at Seicheprey, for the Germans, after the raid which gave them that Lorraine village and which inflicted much loss on our Yankee division, were immediately compelled to give up the place. The Cantigny exploit will be more than a mere raid, if the place is held, for the little town stands at the center of a network of railroads and threatens the German position at Montdidier. — [Boston Transcript.

Lynchers Acquitted.

A miscarriage of justice is the deplorable conclusion of the trial of the men who lynched, that is to say, murdered Robert Prager in southern Illinois. The acquittal of the defendants seems to have been justified by the jury by a new kind of unwritten law which the defendants' lawyer argued had been developed by the war. In the jury's opinion, it appears, one does not have to be proved to be disloyal to warrant this unwritten law's enforcement; all that is necessary is that the victim be alleged or reputed to be disloyal. The presiding judge must have been shocked by the verdict, for he had clearly charged the jury that the case was simply one in which a helpless prisoner was taken from jail and murdered by a mob. As for the lynched alien's attitude toward this country, not a scrap of evidence has been produced to show that he was a spy, or a plotter, or even a dangerous person. — [Springfield Republican.

Sun Footing Themselves.

The American troops did not figure in the German official report of the capture of Cantigny. The war office describes the event in this fashion: "West of Montdidier the enemy during a local advance penetrated into Cantigny yesterday." It is not in accord with the policy of the German general staff to recognize the existence of American troops in France when recognition can be avoided. Hence the Americans who went into Cantigny were merely "the enemy" engaged in a local advance. It is only when American troops are captured or driven back that they are to be mentioned in official reports. — [New York World.

A Massachusetts View.

Whom the New York Democrats will nominate for governor next autumn remains as much in the dark as ever. On that account many think the conditions will bring forth a dark horse. Secretary McAdoo and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt both refuse to run for governor, indicating that the Wilson administration has no desire to mix up in the state campaign. Hearst no longer seems a possibility; his candidacy was badly damaged at the recent Syracuse conference of up-state leaders. The Hearst situation in the Democratic party is felicitously summed up in the statement that Hearst is a man for whom few democrats have any use, but whom few democrats wish to offend. The dark horse prospect, therefore, is necessarily excellent. — [Springfield Republican.

More Work, Less Parade.

We are gradually learning what to do and what not to do to win the war. Moreover, we are discovering that what was essential and necessary a few months ago is not always necessary today. And when work ceases to be necessary it becomes a dangerous hindrance. It is a waste, and we can more readily lose the war by waste than by any other blunder.

No waste time! The fewer holidays the better. The fewer parades of workers the better. Let every minute count. For it is minutes that will win the war. — [New York Tribune.

German Mathematics.

The difference between the casualty figures on Allied losses as compiled by the Teutons and those officially announced by the Allies suggests that along with Kultur and other understandable things the Germans use a system of higher mathematics. — [Indianapolis News.

Prof. Hollister Receives Commission.

H. E. Hollister of Oneonta, who at the opening of the Oneonta High school last fall was for a short time physical training instructor, but who later gave up the position to enter the army, has been commissioned as second lieutenant and is now at Camp Lea. Lieut. Hollister until recently had been at Camp Devens. Many Oneonta friends will congratulate him on his promotion.

County Medical Society.

The semi-annual meeting of the Otsego county Medical society will be held Tuesday, June 11, at Otsego hall, Cooperstown. The business session opens at 12:30 p. m., and will be followed by a dinner at the hall, to which ladies are invited. At the general session a paper will be read by Dr. Wallace of Syracuse.

25,000 ARMY NURSES WANTED

Red Cross Called upon by Army Medical Department to Supply "Pressing Necessity" by January 1, 1919.

Twenty-five thousand nurses for the Army Nurse corps are needed before January 1, 1919, according to an announcement made Monday by the local Red Cross. It has been put up to the American Red Cross by the Army Medical department to secure these women. Service will be in army hospitals both in this country and abroad.

It is the well-to-do woman to whom the call of the Red Cross in the interest of nursing economy is principally addressed. She is urged not to summon a nurse when suffering from headache or neuralgia or similar ailments. For chronic sicknesses also, the Red Cross asks that the services of nurses be dispensed with.

It is pointed out that it is a "pressing military necessity" that every nurse whose services are not imperatively needed at home be released for service in the Army and Navy Nurse corps.

This military necessity devolves directly upon every person employing nurses where the dictates of life or death or the utmost physical necessity do not demand them.

Attention is called to the fact that in many private cases requiring nursing service, nurses enrolled in the Red Cross have been discriminated against.

"Through thoughtlessness," says a statement of the American National Red Cross, "many people having need for a nurse, when calling for one, have stipulated that she be not a Red Cross nurse, for fear she would be called to service and a change made necessary."

"This penalizes the nurse who has signified her willingness to serve her country," the statement continues, "and is a triumph of selfishness over patriotism."

Persons who must have a special nurse are asked to insist upon the services of a Red Cross nurse, that she may not be deprived of her livelihood while waiting for her country's call.

The movement to conserve the nursing service is part of the campaign of the Red Cross to enroll a minimum of 25,000 nurses for war service. The campaign was undertaken at the instance of the army and navy. Five thousand nurses are needed at once by the Army Nurse corps and the Red Cross, with practically no time for preparation, has put its nationwide machinery into operation in an effort to meet that demand and the demand from the navy as well.

Nurses from Otsego and Delaware counties are urged to enroll at once. An article in The Star of Tuesday gives full particulars.

JERSEY CLUB PICNIC

Otsego County Breeders to Meet June 14 With H. H. Marlette & Son Near Mt. Vision.

The annual picnic of the Otsego County Jersey Cattle club will be held at the farm of H. H. Marlette & Son, on the east side of the creek one mile south of Mt. Vision, on June 14th. While this picnic is conducted under the auspices of the Jersey club, all dairymen of the county are invited to come and bring their friends.

An interesting program is provided for the afternoon. Prof. C. H. Royce of the animal husbandry department of Cornell will give a talk on "Dairy Cow Conformation," after which he will conduct a dairy cow judging demonstration. Four animals will be judged by those present and placed according to the decision of the majority. The professor will then arrange them as he believes they should be placed and tell the reasons why.

An interesting program is provided for the afternoon.

The Boys and Girls Calf club, which will be correlated with the Junior Project work of the county, has been started by the club. The club begins with seven members. Heifer calves for them have been selected by the executive committee. These calves will be assembled at Mr. Mar-lette's on the 14th and distributed among the children by lot.

The winner of last year's county potato contest, Henry Bennett, who lives near Hartwick, chose a Jersey bull calf as his prize. The animal has been purchased and will be presented to him by the club during the afternoon. The calf is about a month old and is owned by the herd bull, owned by D. M. Gregory & Son, which won first prize at the State fair last fall. His dam is one of the best daughters of Mr. Ingolsbe's noted Raleigh bull.

C. W. Peaslee will auction off five splendid pure-bred animals consigned by Mrs. Lucinda Tuller, H. H. Marlette & Son, Henry Wallace and E. S. Niles.

Wanted—A Brayless Leader.

Of the many utterances that have fallen from the lips of Claude Kitchen since the ill luck of the Democratic party placed him at the head of the House committee on ways and means, a position which makes him the party's floor leader in the House of Representatives, no other has attained to the heights of asininity reached by his assertion that the publishers of the country, prompted by selfish motives, have entered into a conspiracy to force revenue legislation at this session of congress. — [New York Herald.

LOCAL MENTION.

—A patriotic program will be given by the pupils of the Center street school on Wednesday, June 5, at 2 o'clock. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

—William Wince returned yesterday from a short fishing trip with nine fine brook trout, which must have averaged close to 12 inches, four of the largest not varying a quarter of a pound.

—St. James' guild will be entertaining Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank McFee, state road. The Cooperstown auto bus will carry passengers for 10 cents each, leaving the post office at 3 p. m.

—I. H. Rowe, while playing golf at the Country club yesterday afternoon, in swinging at a ball when standing upon slippery ground, fell, both feet slipping at once, and sustained a painful injury. Whether the wrist is severely sprained or a bone is splintered the surgeons have been unable as yet to definitely determine.

—There was a good attendance
yesterday at the meeting of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church, held in the church parlors. Light refreshments were served. Mrs. A. J. Bush and Mrs. Stur-art DeRonde acting as hostesses, and there was a very interesting paper on "Brazil" read by Mrs. Hamford.

FOUR ENLIST THROUGH BOARD.

One Man, Although He is in Class
Four, Waives Claim.

Under the special call issued Monday by the Local Exemption Board for men of limited military liability for voluntary enlistment in the spruce production work of the army, four men applied yesterday and were accepted. One of them, Harry L.
Randall, waived his claim for deferred classification in class four as a married man, and upon his wife taking similar action, was taken for service as a cook.

The other men were: Stanley R.
Miller, automobile mechanic; Harley Houghton, brakeman; and Frank N.
Elsabee, laborer.

Under the call for grammar school graduates for mechanical training, three enlisted. They are: Merton F.
Slater, Joseph A. McCarthy, and Harry Root.

Because these calls are expected to close within a day or two, registrants were advised yesterday by the Local Board to take immediate advantage of them.

Meetings Today.

MEN OF 21 REGISTER TODAY

THOSE WHO HAVE BECOME OF AGE SINCE JUNE 5, 1917, MUST VISIT LOCAL BOARD.

Time: Between 7 A. M. and 9 P. M.—
Failure to Do So Is Misdemeanor—
No Excuses Accepted—Urged to Appear Early—Rules for Sick—
Questions to Be Asked.

All young men who have become 21 years of age since June 5, 1917, must appear before their Local Board
some time today between the hours of 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. and register under the selective service law. This does not apply, however, to men who are already in the military service of the United States.

Any one who will not be at home should go to the nearest Local Board at once, fill out his registration card and mail it, with a stamped envelope, to the Local Board having jurisdiction over his home address. If he does not know the address of the board that card should be mailed to the mayor of his home city, or, if in a country district, to the county clerk.
Such cards must be received by the Local Boards by June 5.

Any registrant who is not certain of the Local Board to which he belongs should inquire at once at the nearest Local Board. Any police officer will direct him to such Board.
Do not wait until June 5 to make this inquiry.

Today liable men should report to their Local Board early in the day so as to avoid any possibility of being unable to register.

Persons who are ill should send a friend to the Local Board which will give directions as to the methods of registration.

No excuse will be accepted for failure to register, and persons failing to do so will be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be immediately inducted into the military service.

The Local Board for Oneonta and vicinity last night gave out the official questions that will be asked the men. They follow:

1. Name in full. Age in years.
This means all your names spelled out in full. Disregard additional months or days.
2. Home address. This means the place where you permanently reside, not the place where you work. Be prepared to give the address in this way: "232 Main street, Chicago, Cook county, Ill." or "R. F. D." No.
3, Jonesville, Ohio."
3. Date of birth. To be required to register you must have been born in 1895, in a month and on a day subsequent to June 5, or in 1897, in a month or on a day thereof prior to or on the date set for registration.
4. Where were you born? First, name the city or town, then the state, then the nation: as "Columbus,
Ohio," "Vienna, Austria," "Paris,
France."

5. Are you (1) a native citizen of the United States; (2) a naturalized citizen; (3) an alien; (4) have you declared your intention to become a citizen; (5) or are you a citizen or non-citizen Indian? (specify which.)
(1) If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a native of the United States, no matter what may have been the citizenship or nationality of your parents.

(2) If you were born abroad you are still a citizen of the United States, if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

(3) You are a naturalized citizen
if you have completed your naturalization; that is, if you have "taken final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen. . . .
You are also a naturalized citizen if although foreign born your father or surviving parent became fully naturalized while you were under 21. . . .

(4) You are a declarant if, although a citizen or subject of some other country, you have declared before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. . . .

(5) You are an alien if you do not fall within the above mentioned classes.

6. If not a citizen, of what nation are you a citizen or subject?
This need be answered only by aliens and declarants. Remember that a "declarant" is not yet a citizen of the United States. If an alien or declarant, state the name of your country, as "France," "Germany," etc.

7. Father's birthplace. First, name the city or town, then the state or province, then the nation. (See paragraph 4.)

8. Name of employer. Place of employment. If you are working for an individual, firm or corporation or association, state its name. If business, trade, profession, or employment for yourself, so state. If you are an officer of the state or federal government, say whether your office is under the United States, the state, county, or a municipality. As to place of employment, give the number and name of the street, town, county and state, or R. F. D. number, post office, county and state, where you work.

9. Name and address of nearest relative. If you are married and your wife is living, her name should be stated. If you are single or your wife is dead, you should state the name of your nearest blood relative.
In stating address, give the number and name of the street first, then the city or town, then county and state;
or R. F. D. number first, then post office, then county and state.

10. Race—White, negro, Indian or Oriental.

MEETS SHOCKING DEATH

CLARENCE J. WELLS, WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN, KILLED AT
D. & H. SHOPS.

While Using Jack Beneath Engine Tank It Flies Out Hitting Him in the Temple, Inflicting Fatal Injuries—Dies Before Reaching Hospital.

Clarence J. Wells, residing with his mother at 65 East street, met with a shocking and fatal accident yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, while at work at the D. & H. shops. He was, according to the information given The Star, at work upon the tank of a locomotive, which had been jacked up. In some inexplorable manner the jack was thrown out from under the tank and in such a manner that a part of the jack hit him squarely in the head near the temple. It was seen that he was critically injured and the Allied Trades' ambulance was hurriedly summoned, but the unfortunate man passed away before the hospital was reached. News of his death was received by all who knew him with expressions of deep regret and sympathy for the family.

Mr. Wells was born at Colliers 42 years ago, the son of Jerome and Sarah Wells, but removed with the family to Oneonta when six years of age and had since resided here. He was for years in the employ of the firm of McKee & Borst, and had charge of their work, replacing window glass and other tasks, being considered a very capable and competent workman. Some eight weeks ago he was offered a more lucrative position at the D. & H. shops, which he accepted and had since been employed there.

Mr. Wells had served for a number of years on the election board in his election district and was well-known to many residents. He also for a long period was a member of the volunteer fire department and was at the time of his death a member of the Veteran Firemen's association, among the members of which he was especially esteemed. One of their number in speaking of him last evening said, "He was a hundred per cent man," which words perhaps fully regard in which he was held. He was manly and upright and his devotion to his mother was notable—a fine tribute to be said of any one.

Surviving him are his mother, Mrs.
Sarah Wells, his father having died
some years since, and one sister, Mrs.
B. C. Boots, also of this city. The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Rev. Dr. Charles S. Pendleton of the Free Baptist church, of which the deceased had for years been a member, will officiate and interment will be made in the family plot in Glenwood cemetery.

WAR CHEST OVER $100,000

Total Subscriptions Not All Reported
but the Fund Has Now Passed the Second Goal, Surpassing the Expectations When Project was Launched.

While the definite and final figures are not yet obtainable as there are subscriptions confidently expected which have not been reported and some which have not been tabulated, it can safely be stated that the fund has passed the second goal of $100,000, surpassing the fondest expectations of those active in promoting the enterprise when it was launched. It is expected that the subscriptions received will be tabulated and reported before the close of the week and the complete list of Oneonta's War Chest Roll of Honor published.

The blanks are still in the hands of the local business firms announced in several recent issues and any who have not yet done their part and have been waiting for some one to call upon them should see to it that their names are upon the list at once in order that the final list may be complete, for it will be preserved by many.

One of the most gratifying contributions recently received was one of $56 from the Sauer Chemical company, received from the home office in New York city a day or two since.
Creditable also is the fact that all the resident employees of the company have made subscriptions to this fund to aid the relief work of the Red Cross and other organizations which are doing so much for the soldier boys and the suffering people of the war stricken countries.

Now Is the Best Time of the Year to Have Your Furnace or Heater Cleaned

Your heater deteriorates fastest through rusting during the time the fire is out, if the soot and dirt accumulated during the winter is left in to draw and hold the dampness.

Besides, if you wait until during the fall rush when everybody is hurrying for the winter, we may not be able to give you the immediate service we would like to. This you will find true, especially if it should be necessary to order repairs to come from the manufacturers, as the service from all factories is so handicapped by the present conditions that they are absolutely undependable.

Leave your order with us at once, and thereby insure for yourself the care of your heater.

Yours for furnace experts.

A BRILLIANT SPECTACLE

The Lawn Pageant at the Normal Phones a Host of Spectators.

Oneonta has learned to anticipate eagerly the annual lawn pageant at the Normal school. Nothing else in the school year equals the brilliancy of this spectacle, gorgeous colorings, artistic groupings and splendid evolutions make the occasion highly entertaining. This year was no exception to the high standard of excellence which has prevailed in these performances, for everyone who was privileged to witness the event last evening was delighted with its many attractive features.

The Normal campus is ideally constituted for such a spectacle, and particularly at this season of the year is the setting inspiring. The city is now a mass of perfect foliage; the river valley is an immaculate emerald, and the hillsides are matchless in beauty. Under such ideal conditions, the pageant moved across the scene to musical music and happy hearts. Every color known to man appeared in the various costumes, and the scene was bewilderingly beautiful. Children of the grades, students of the Normal, swains and ladies, princesses and princes, kings and queens, vied with one another in splendor and glory.

It is unfortunately impossible to give in detail in the limited space available an account of the many delightful features of the entertainment. We wish that we could say more of the dances of all kinds that were interspersed with spirited games and exciting contests. However, we must be content with the general word of commendation: everything went with precision and indicated careful preparation and apt pupils. The solo dances by Miss Dorothy Allen were highly appreciated and generously applauded.

By no means least in attractiveness was the circle of spectators, some in chairs, some on the lawn, and others in automobiles, thus forming a brightly colored background for the gay throng of revellers. Never before have so many gone to witness this spring fête. Oneonta certainly gives evidence that these occasions are richly enjoyed.

The Star takes this opportunity to commend all who were responsible for the success of the pageant. To Miss Love particularly who has charge of the physical training at the Normal, highest praise is due.

DEATHS.

BANQUET FOR DISTRICT DEPUTY

Martha Chapter Entertains Handsomely Mrs. Stearns of Unadilla.

Mrs. Eveline S. Stearns of Unadilla, district deputy grand matron of the Order Eastern Star, paid an official visit to Martha chapter last evening and the occasion was made memorable by the members of the chapter, the event being one of exceptional enjoyment. At 8:30 o'clock a banquet was given in her honor in the banquet hall of the order, at which a delectable dinner was served, following which a short reception was given to Mrs. Stearns.

At eight o'clock the chapter was opened and after Mrs. Stearns had been received with the honors due her station, and Mrs. Brooks of New Berlin, the grand representative to Oneonta, also had been received, the Star degree was conferred upon one candidate. Mrs. Stearns before her departure complimenting Mrs. Arthur N. Coy and her capable staff of officers upon the excellency and beauty of the degree work.

Other enjoyable features of the session were solos by Arthur N. Coy with Mrs. Breta Fay as accompanist and by Miss Minnie Parks. Mrs. Stearns was accompanied from Unadilla by 16 members of the chapter there, an important gathering at the Masonic lodge in that village prevented many members from coming, who otherwise would have attended. There were visitors present also from Schoharie, Delhi and Fleischmanns. There were more than 160 in attendance.

D. & H. FIREMAN JOINS NAVY.

John Rinchimer, formerly in Marine Corps, Re-enlists at Albany.

John Rinchimer, recently employed by the D. & H. company here as a locomotive fireman, yesterday enlisted at the Marine corps recruiting station at Albany and will shortly be in the service. Mr. Rinchimer was formerly a member of the Marine corps, having been honorably discharged in 1913 with the rank of corporal. Since the date of his discharge he has been in the employ of the company and is well known among the employees.

Announcement is made at Albany that men within the draft ages can apply to Marine corps recruiting stations for enlistment provided they are not in the current quota and their numbers are not so low as to make them liable for a call in the immediate future. No men within the draft ages are acceptable as applicants at the army recruiting stations.

Ice Cream Social.

The Christian Volunteer class of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church will hold an ice cream social on the lawn of Harvey Baker's residence Friday evening and not in the church, as was yesterday announced.

ONLY ONE WEEK TO BIG EVENT

ANNUAL MEETING STATE U. C. T. BEGINS NEXT WEEK THURSDAY

Elaborate Plans of Local Council for Entertainment—Prominent Speakers—Participation—Big Parade on Flag Day—Hall Game Friday.

A week from tomorrow the delegates of the United Commercial Travelers will begin arriving in this city and the day following the eighteenth annual convention will be formally opened.

Members of the local council have spent much effort and thought in preparing for the state convention and while the entertainment of the visitors will not be extravagant it is expected the occasion may be made memorial and interesting. Of course there is much speculation as to the number of delegates and visitors who will attend, Oneonta's location, however, argues well for a good attendance, particularly so, as it is fortunately situated on a few weeks of "hot" highways. From Albany and from Binghamton there will be large numbers of members of the order, their families and friends.

Friday, Flag Day, an interesting program is being prepared. The business places will close for the afternoon and that portion of the day given over to the proper observance and celebration of the event. Company G, Boy Scouts, fraternal organizations and students of the Normal and public schools also will participate in the big parade. The Commercial Travelers will have the right of line in this parade and will be accompanied by two or more bands. The Worcester band has been engaged to head the Albany delegation, of which Grand Counselor W. G. George is a member. The Binghamton council which will number 100 or more will be accompanied by a band composed of members of the order.

The line of march will form on Main street and proceed to Wilber park.

Exercises fitting the day will be arranged. Several local speakers will take part besides John A. Milliner of Columbus, Ohio, who will present a silk flag and flag staff to Long Island Council for having obtained the largest number of members during the past year. Past Grand Counselor R. H. Selfridge of Syracuse will present the Grand Council with a service flag indicating the members of the order who have joined the colors.

The ball game between Binghamton and Oneonta at 4 o'clock in Nehaw park promises also to develop much sport. Binghamton has carried off the honors for many years but Oneonta intends to give the Broome county ball tossers a run for their money.

Following the afternoon exercises a ball will be held in the State armory at which time the Commercial Travelers and their families will be guests of Company G. From every appearance it would seem that Flag Day will be a busy one in Oneonta.

PLANNING CHILDREN'S HOME

Oneonta District Home Missionary Gathering at Bainbridge.

The Oneonta District Women's Home society met at Bainbridge Tuesday at Methodist Episcopal church, with sessions morning and afternoon. The district was well represented. Excellent reports from all auxiliaries showing greatly increased work over last year were given. Some auxiliaries doubled membership. Much interest was manifested in the new Children's home at Binghamton; each auxiliary planning to raise funds for the same.

The following officials were elected: Pres.—Mrs. C. B. Hens. Worcester. Vice-Pres.—Mrs. R. L. Clark, Norwich. Rec. Sec.—Mrs. H. L. Baker, Norwich. Cor. Sec.—Mrs. Berton Todd, Oneonta. Treas.—Mrs. D. L. Meeker, Guilford. Secretaries: Young People—Mrs. E. V. Dix, Cooperstown. Children—Mrs. H. W. Thomas, Susquehanna, Pa. Literature—Mrs. A. D. Finch, Sidney. Misc. Boxes—Mrs. E. L. Murray, Guilford. Temperance—Mrs. L. A. White, Mt. Vernon. Evangelism—Mrs. Ray Hall, Guilford. Tithing—Mrs. B. N. Johns, Oneonta. Press—Mrs. Berton Todd, Oneonta. Conference Members—Mrs. Wm. Oster, Worcester.

STADEBAUER HAD BULLETS.

Alleged Pro-German and Deserter. However Had No Weapon.

On the request of Louis Stadelbauer, deserter from the National army arrested here Monday night, that his personal belongings, which he had left in the woods at East End, be sent to a friend, local officials last night to attend the goods. An examination revealed a number of 25 calibre cartridges, and shot gun shells, but no arm was discovered. Stadelbauer, alleged pro-German, is being held for court martial by army authorities. He may be taken to a nearby camp today.

After More Buicks.

Bert Smith, 341, married by R. F. Taber of Binghamton and Harold O'Neil of Hiram, N. Y. last evening for Buick from which car they will drive through to the three more Buicks for R. W. Hume, the local agent. W. H. Porter of Binghamton accompanied them for the pleasure of the trip across the state today.

Desirable Rooms Wanted.

Owing to the number which will be in attendance the state convention of the United Commercial Travelers, it will be necessary to secure rooms for many of them in private residences. The dates are June 12, 14 and 15, and those having desirable rooms in fairly close proximity to the business section, which they will rent during the convention, are requested to notify C. H. Bowditch at the chamberlain's office, Municipal building. advt 3t

REEL AND REAL ACCIDENTS

DANGEROUS ACCIDENT AVERTED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON DURING FILMING OF MOVING PICTURE.

Running at 45 Miles an Hour, Fire Chief's Car Hits Stationary Cop Rather Than Auto or Pedestrians—Beautiful Scenes Photographed at the Morgan Residence at Emmons.

Oneonta yesterday afternoon had the double experience of reel accidents and a real smash-up during the taking of scenes for the moving picture scenario, "The Call to the Colors," with local talent as the stars.

The actual smashup came at 1:30, when the entire fire department, including the old horse-drawn steamer, dashed pell-mell down Main street on the way to an imaginary fire while the camera man clicked off foot after foot of realistic film, and Teddy Mooney, rigged out in a policeman's uniform, cleared the street of pedestrians and vehicles. Leading the flying squadron of apparatus was Chief Charles Choate in a heavy roadster. To avoid hitting two men when a Ford business car suddenly shot out of Chestnut street extension, disregarding warnings to stop, the chauffeur of the chief's car took the only alternative left and smashed squarely into the stationary cop posted at the corner, completely demolishing it and breaking an oil cock on the bottom of the chassis of his automobile. The chief's car was going at 45 miles an hour at the time.

The movie plot, as developed yesterday, included courtship; the engagement; the marriage; the honeymoon trip; the departure for war; return of the hero with a companion after being wounded in battle; and several years later, now having two children, the wife, nagging at the husband, quarrels with him in the street, only to be greatly ashamed of herself, and receiving his forgiveness.

Amid the blossoming of flowers of many hues in the picturesque garden of the K. E. Morgan estate at Emmons, delightfully sleeping among the hills of the valley of the gently flowing Susquehanna, a love scene was set with charming simplicity. Strolling from the vine-entwined pergola, oblivious to all but their own presence, the lovers stopped beneath an archway where pretty Polly Wilson listened to the outpourings of Gilbert's, flaring on his breast gave her acceptance. Then followed what the poets call a soul kiss, long and sweet.

After a wedding in the Wilson mansion in the presence of her father, a wealthy automobile manufacturer, and a host of friends, and with the guests of send-offs by the bridal party, the cute little flower girl, Polly's sister, the most happy because it was the groom who had rescued her from the grips of villainous kidnappers—the newly-weds hasten off on their honeymoon.

A most interested witness of the filming yesterday afternoon was Mr. Morgan, who had thrown open the hospitality of his spacious grounds and luxurious home to the enacting of the play. He aided in every possible way to make the picture a success, providing among other things many flowers for the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Morgan also joined in the merriment.

The cast of characters follows: Hero—Gilbert Smith (Fred Breece); leading lady—Polly Wilson (Helen Stanley); Polly's sister—(Madeline Shearer); Gilbert's sisters—(Minnie Parks and Irene Drard); Jimmie Skelly and Frank Todd, kidnappers; (Charles Buck and Francis Fahey); examining officer, "Sergeant John Beach"; recruiting officer, (Private George Oelrichs); Polly's friends, (Irene Hayes and Mrs. George Shearer); flower girls and boys.

A Nash, five passenger touring car, the courtesy of the Francis Motor Sales company, was used for the honeymoon trip.

Do Stones Grow?

To speak very correctly, only organic things grow, though inorganic things, money for instance, may increase in size or quantity. Stones do not grow, they happen. In some way or another they have been chipped off from rocks, or hardened from clay or similar nodules. Sometimes they have been rubbed smooth, or partly so, by friction. But although they may be added to in some rare instances by coatings of hardened mud, they certainly do not and cannot "grow," as do living things, by any power within them.

He's Real Candy Kid.

Allentown, Pa.—Chris Kiralis is a real "candy kid." The Greek was stationed at Camp Meade when a call came from Camp Aniston, Ala., for a man skilled in making candy, which was Kiralis' old trade. He was selected. "I do not want to go to Alabama to make candy," he protested. "I want to go to France to fight the Germans." He will go across in the next contingent.
